Your privacy is important to us and we are committed to protecting it through our compliance with this Privacy Policy.

Rosebud Restaurants and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, "Rosebud," "we," or "us"), understand your concerns with regard to how information about you is used and shared, and we appreciate your trust that we will use and share information about you carefully and sensibly. This Privacy Policy describes the types of information that we may collect about you, how we may collect it, how we use it, with who we may share it and what choices you have regarding it. This Privacy Policy applies to your use of our Internet and mobile Web sites, and other online services (collectively, the "Sites"), and any other means by which we may collect information about you, including information you may provide to us other than on the Sites or via the App. We encourage you to carefully read this Privacy Policy and our Terms of Use. By accessing and using the Site, or by downloading, installing, and accessing or using the App, you agree that you have read and understand this Privacy Policy and that you accept and consent to the privacy practices (and any uses and disclosures of information about you) that are described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with our policies and practices, do not use or access the Site and do not download, register with or use the App.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to any other websites or mobile applications, or to information that may be collected by any other websites or mobile applications. Other third parties (such as online reservation platforms or social media networks that you may use in connection with our Sites) may also use, collect and share information about you. We are not responsible for, and this Privacy Policy does not apply to, the privacy practices of other companies or other websites or mobile applications. We encourage you to seek out and read the privacy policy of each website that you visit and each mobile application that you use.

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time at our discretion by posting an updated Privacy Policy accessible to users of the Sites. Changes to this Privacy Policy will be effective when posted. In the event of a change to the Privacy Policy, we will update the "Last Modified" date above and notify you on our homepage that the Privacy Policy has been recently updated. Your continued use of the Sites after we make changes is deemed to be acceptance of those changes, so please check the policy periodically for updates.

If you believe we might have any personal information from or about a child under the age of 18, please email us at marketing@rosebud-restaurants.com or contact us at the contact information provided below.

What information do we collect, and how do we collect it?

We may collect several types of information from and about users of our Sites, which may consist of information by which you may be personally identified (including your name, postal address, e-mail address, telephone/mobile number, billing information or any other information the Sites collect that is defined as personal or personally identifiable information under an applicable law) (collectively, "personal information"); information that is about you but does not identify you, such as your dining history/habits, reservation data and site activity/behavior; and/or information about your internet connection, the equipment you use to access the Sites and usage details. For certain services on our Sites, credit or debit card account information may be required. We may also obtain information from other sources, such as third-party websites, applications and services (each, a “Third-Party Platform”), through which you connect with our Sites and combine that with information we collect on our Sites.

We may directly ask you to provide certain of the above information on our Sites. This is obtained by any of the following means:

- Information that you provide by filling in forms on the Sites. This includes information provided at the time of registering to use the App, posting material, subscribing to our loyalty programs and/or you requesting further services. We may also ask you for information when you enter a contest or promotion sponsored by us, and when you report a problem with the Sites.
- Records and copies of your correspondence (including e-mail addresses and phone numbers), if you contact us.
- Your responses to surveys that we might ask you to complete for research purposes.
- Details of transactions you carry out through the Sites and of the fulfillment of your orders. You may be required to provide financial information before placing an order through the Sites.
- Your search queries on the Sites.

As with many other websites, the web servers used to operate the Sites may automatically collect certain data pertaining to you, including your location, computer operating system, Internet Protocol (IP) address, access times, browser type and language, and the website you visited before or after visiting our Sites. For security reasons and to confirm the integrity of the Sites, we and our third-party service providers, including third-party vendors, consultants, and other service providers who work for us (our “Contractors”) may combine components of these data with personal information, which may identify you. Unless otherwise described in this Privacy Policy, such identifying information will be used solely for our business purposes. We and our Contractors may use this information to help administer the Sites and the servers that provide the Sites, generate statistical information, monitor and analyze traffic and usage patterns on the Sites and improve the Sites’ content and content delivery, including any online content, materials and services that we describe or make available on the Sites.

In addition, our Sites may send one or more “cookies” to your computer to improve the utility of the Sites by storing user preferences and tracking user trends. Cookies are small data files that may have unique identifiers and reside, among other places, on your computer or mobile device, in emails we send to you, and on our web pages. Most browsers are initially set up to accept cookies, but you can reset your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. Please note that you may not be able to access the full functionality of our Sites if cookies are disabled on your browser. We use cookies to see which areas and features of our Sites are popular and to count visits to our Sites. We may access information contained in cookies placed on your device by a Third-Party Platform as permitted by the terms of your agreement and privacy settings with such Third-Party Platform. Similarly, we may automatically collect information using web beacons. Web beacons are electronic images that may be used on our Sites or in our emails. We use web beacons to deliver cookies, count visits, understand usage and campaign effectiveness, and tell whether you open an email and act upon it.

Some content or applications, including advertisements, on the Sites are served by third parties, including advertisers, ad networks and servers, content providers and application providers. These third parties may use cookies alone or in conjunction with web beacons or other tracking technologies to collect information about you when you use our Sites. The information they collect may be associated with your personal information or they may collect information, including personal information, about your online activities over time and across different websites and other online services. They may use this information to provide you with interest-based (behavioral) advertising or other targeted content. We do not control these third parties’ tracking technologies or how they may be used. If you have any questions about an advertisement or other targeted content, you should contact the responsible provider directly. Please note that we currently do not employ technology that recognizes “do-not-track” signals.

How will we use the information you provide to us?

In addition to the uses described above, we may use the collected information to fulfill the purpose for which you’ve provided the information, to analyze and improve the content, materials and services that we make available on the Sites, to notify you of changes made to the Sites, to evaluate user needs and improve the Sites’ content, to send you promotional materials and to support our continuing efforts to offer users the information and services we think they want most. If you contact us for support or assistance, we may use collected information to provide service and support to you. We may also use the information we collect to deliver targeted advertisements to you and other visitors of our Sites. We may use the information to understand you and your preferences to enhance, personalize and customize your experience and enjoyment using our Sites, products and services, such as understanding your dining history, to make recommendations about our other restaurants you may like. We may share your information with these business and marketing partners for any lawful purpose, including to communicate with you or to fulfill your requests for our services, and to further our mission as an organization. We and our contractors may also produce reports on Site traffic or usage patterns, and similar data generated from your information, and we may share these reports with our business and marketing partners and others.

By submitting your credit or debit card account information through our Sites, you expressly consent to the sharing of your information with third-party payment processors, and other third-party service providers. We share this information with our third-party payment service providers in order to process your payments. These third parties may also store your credit or debit card information, other than your CVV number, for your future use on our Sites. Your CVV number will not be stored and must be re-entered for each order.

Our Sites may allow you to connect and share your actions, comments, content and information publicly or with friends. Our Sites may also allow you to connect with us on, share on and use Third-Party Platforms, including those on which we have a presence. Please be mindful of your personal privacy needs and the privacy needs of others as you choose whom to connect with and what to share and make public. We cannot control the privacy or security of information you choose to make public or share with others. Rosebud also does not control the privacy practices of Third-Party Platforms. Please contact those sites and services directly if you want to learn about their privacy practices.

We may disclose collected information to the proper authorities if we become subject to a subpoena or court order or if we believe that we are otherwise legally compelled or requested to disclose such information. We may also use and disclose information about you to establish or exercise our legal rights, to assert and defend against legal claims, or if we believe such disclosure is necessary to investigate, prevent, or take other action regarding actual or suspected illegal or fraudulent activities or potential threats to the physical safety or well-being of any person.
